

Sergio Barrios. Director General of International Relations, Municipality of Rosario (2008 and continues)

- Degree in International Relations, National University of Rosario.
- Master of Business Administration - Mention Strategic Management, University of Belgrano, Buenos Aires, Argentina.
- Member of the Community of Experts on International Relations of the Euro-Latin American Partnership for Cooperation between cities (AL-LAs).
- Executive Coordinator of the Executive Secretariat of Mercociudades (period 2014/2015), and current Coordinator of the Mercociudades Vicepresidence for Climate Change and Sustainable Development.
- Specialist in international management of cities.
- Member of the Evaluation Commission of Professors and Associates under the Evaluation of Teaching Profession (Ord Superior Council National University of Rosario N° 583.) by the graduate faculty, Subjects: Foreign Trade, International Economics and Seminar II, Regional Integration and International cooperation.
- Participating as a speaker, moderator or lecturer in seminars and workshops in many events of national and international character related to international management of cities. Also author of articles, contributions and compilations on the subject.